Enjoy a Haystack Lunch at a Real Amish Home

For some Amish and Mennonite groups, haystacks aren't only found in the field but also on the dinner plate. Haystack suppers are a local food tradition in the area. People gather to socialize, raise money for a local cause and dig into a hearty meal. This haystack is a colorful build-it-yourself medley of rice, seasoned ground beef, lettuce, tomato, peppers, onions, and other vegetables with a generous dollop of sunshine (cheese sauce) to top it all off—a deconstructed taco, really.

Visit Yoder's Popcorn Shop

Sample the popular Tiny Tender Popcorn, a wide variety of gourmet flavoring salts and oils. This 3rd generation grower is known far and wide for producing a virtually hullless popcorn.

Visit to an Amish home for mid afternoon snack

Visit Bender's Camel Dairy Farm

A camel dairy farm in Northern Indiana? Yes! This is one of only 7 in the United States. Learn what the milk is used for and the lightning fast milking process needed to collect it. Spring brings with it lots baby camels--always endearing. During the summer months sample a cooling treat of camel milk ice cream. This stop is always a group favorite.
